

For the first time at the BIO International Convention,
the Mid-Atlantic – Eurasia Business Council presents

the Eurasian Economic Union

at the Global Innovation Hubs
on Wednesday, June 17
in Room 110AB at 11:45AM.

The Eurasian Economic Union is the integrated legal and economic network of Armenia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Russia; its creation induces the free movement of goods and includes up to 170 million people, within a framework of new energy, industry, transportation, biological, and life science pathways being explored between all member states. Attend the panel to hear the top reasons to consider the Eurasian Economic Union and learn about this brand new union and its opportunities in the Life-Sciences and Biotechnology industries.

Speakers:

Aleksandr Kilchevsky, Chief Scientific Secretary, National Academy of Sciences of Belarus

Lyudmila Ogorodova, Deputy Minister of Science and Education of the Russian Federation
