From Moscow to Philadelphia – Three Sisters at Arden Theatre Company

PHILADELPHIA, PA. – The Mid-Atlantic – Russia Business Council is pleased to announce our support and invite you to the Arden Theatre Company’s performance of Anton Chekov’s masterpiece Three Sisters from March 20 - April 20, 2014. Arden Theatre Company is located at 40 N. 2nd Street (between Arch and Market) in Philadelphia.

Anton Chekov’s Three Sisters follow the lives of sisters Olga, Masha, and Irina, who live in a provincial town in rural Russia with their younger brother, Andre. We receive a glimpse of the lives of the siblings, following them through catastrophes and seasonal parties. Director Terrence J. Nolen brings this compelling, vibrant story to life. This production features a brand new translation of the original Russian text by Curt Columbus, as well as live Russian music from the cast.

Tickets can be purchased online at <http://ardentheatre.org/2014/threesisters.html>.

For discounted rates, please enter the code MARBC during registration.
